WHERE Upstairs at the Club
WHAT The Help
WHO by Kathryn Stokett

Interwoven with historical detail of the segregated south of the 1960s, The Help chronicles the lives of three women in Jackson, Mississippi as they confront the challenges of their time. The story offers an intimate insight into the thinking of both the black and white citizens as they cope with the reality of their southern society and the changes that desegregation is imposing upon them.

The Help was number one on the New York Times best seller list.

The last of the Wet Wednesday buffets that mesh with our meetings will be this month so once again, those wishing to partake of the buffet, come at six. We will gather for our meeting with or without a delicious buffet plate and select at that time where to gather for our meeting.

Our October book selection will be
Istanbul - Memories and The City by Orhan Pamuk.
