Be a part of outrigger racing history!

August 14, 2010

Anacapa Classic

Would you like to be a part of an exciting, fun, scenic competition on the water? Sign up to “escort” an outrigger canoe team as they race across the Channel and back. This is a renewal of a race held in the late 70’s, but with a new twist. Coed teams of 12 (6 in the canoe and 6 on your escort boat) will race from CI Harbor to Arch Rock, along the coast of Anacapa and back – about 30 miles. Every 30 minutes, the escort boat pulls ahead, drops 6 paddlers in the water, then swings back and picks up the paddlers who just finished paddling.

“Escort boats are a crucial and active part of this race”

Requirements:

motor-powered boat

Marine radio for race communication & safety

GPS (desired)

Safety equipment – tow rope, throw buoy, first aid kit

Room to stow minimal crew gear – jackets, snacks, water, etc.

Payment offered toward fuel expense!

Sat. 8/14 Check-in (HS lot - Curlew Way)
Meet up with your crew, load gear
8:30 am race start (est. finish 12:30 – 2:00 pm)
After-race party and awards
